Bewitched I was by your beauty's magnitude,
At first, even you did not find it very rude.
You had something bigger in your mind,
That I utterly failed to find.

Everything was going alright for the time being,
All on a sudden to you I turned into a strange thing.
You had a mind so playful,
Alas! There was no one, I was the only fool.

I did not know that the hearts you love to drill,
Now, the loss I intensely feel.
In my heart, you made a black hole,
I still keep rolling and roll.

Now I don't have anyone to urge,
Just trying my best to make my patience large.
